

Congratulations to this season's trophy holder
Jasmine Campbell

Norfolk's Jasmine Campbell claimed the title of England's most improved girl golfer with a three-shot win in the Abraham Trophy.

The 13-year-old from Royal Norwich scored net 70 at Tiverton Golf Club, Devon, finishing three clear of Hertfordshire's Rebecca Earl, and of her Norfolk colleague, Amelia Williamson.

"This means a lot," said Jasmine. "I didn't really expect it. I came to do my best and it turned into something more."

Jasmine (image © Leaderboard Photography) took up golf a couple of years ago, encouraged by her uncle, and this time last year was playing off her first handicap of 34. Since then she's tumbled to 15 and is hoping to get to single figures before the end of the season.

Her successes along the way have included winning her section in the Norfolk girls' handicap challenge and capturing the girls' title at the 2013 Norfolk schools' championship.

Send in your completed Entry Form stating your 6 best nett scores in relation to the LGU/USGA Scratch Score, (Medal, Stableford, Par). Between 1 March 2013 and 28 March 2014.
